INAUGURATION OF THE CORRIB CLUB

The inauguration of a Rowing Club, formed by a large number of the young gentlemen of Galway, was then celebrated in the premises of the Club, Wood Quay.

There were twenty-four members of the club present. Rules of a very admirable character were framed, and a chairman, vice-chairman, and treasurer were appointed. Mr. Lambert was elected chairman.

After a very agreeable soiree, during which many eloquent speeches were made, the club was declared an established fact and the members separated highly pleased with the proceedings of the evening.

We have no doubt the members of the club will provide much amusement for the public during the summer months and we trust the young gentlemen themselves will find the manly sport of boating both pleasant and profitable."

The Club opened at Wood Quay for a short time, then transferred to land beside the weir, and remained there until 1903 when it opened in its present premises.
